DEDICATION

MRS. HAZEL CAVES

The Senior Class of 1956 humbly dedicates this Indian Village Annual to you, Mrs. Caves, who have overlooked our faults and found our talents.

Six years ago you gave tirelessly of your time and effort to help us successfully make the big jump from grade school to junior high. We still sought your friendly advice when we finally moved into the freshman class. But your real work with us was not yet finished, for as junior class sponsor you worked at our side in the concession stands, and you worried right along with us at Prom time.

We are depending on this yearbook to say forgotten "Thank you's." Just as it is our symbol of past good things, so it is a symbol of our sincere hope that all the very best life has to offer comes to you.

SUPERINTENDENT

Seniors:

You have attained your high school diplomas. Other years of preparation lie ahead. True success is measured not merely in accomplishing your personal goals, but also in giving your very best to God and to your fellow men.

MR. HAROLD U. COPE

BOARD OF EDUCATION

PRINCIPAL

Seniors:

"What are you doing?" Three laborers beside a building under construction were asked this question. The first replied, "Stone cutting." The second smiled, "Putting in time until a better job comes along." The third paused a moment and then said simply, "I'm building a cathedral!"

In which of the three categories will you find yourselves?

Congratulations and best wishes are extended to each of you.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Feeling the need for a change, Jane Eyre leaves the seclusion of the state orphan's home where she has spent most of her life, first as a resident, then as a teacher. While governess at mysterious Thornfield Hall, she soon falls in love with the master of the house, Mr. Rochester. In the midst of the wedding ceremony, Jane learns that Mr. Rochester has a wife, who is insane. Jane rushes from the wedding, and is not seen again. In one of her mad rages, Mr. Rochester's wife starts a fire in which she kills herself, and blinds him.

This horrid chain of events makes Mr. Rochester a withdrawn old man, whose heart is eaten out with love for Jane Eyre. Jane returns to Thornfield, fully convinced that she cannot live apart from Mr. Rochester. Upon learning of his plight, she is filled with pity which is overshadowed by love.

Story-book fashion, Jane and Mr. Rochester marry and live happily ever after.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In 1953, we started our freshman year with a class of eighty-six students. We chose Paul Steiner as our president; Russell Kear as vice-president; and Robert Miller as secretary-treasurer. We will be forever grateful to Mr. Donald Olin and Mr. Frederick Koenig, who helped us through our first year, which included our very successful party held on January 27.

We approached our sophomore year with more confidence. Under the able guidance of Mr. Fred eric Criner and Mr. Frederick Fleeman, we participated in more sports and organizations. The high point of the year was the choosing of our class rings. Our informal class party, which was held on February 2, was a great success. Early in the year we chose the following officers: president, Julie Sebenoler, vice-president, Dennis Gerber; secretary, Dan Phillips; and treasurer, Tom Roszman.

As juniors, we couldn't have done without the assistance of Mrs. Hazel Caves, Mr. Donald Drebus, and Mr. Kenneth Kohn. With the loyal help of Mrs. Caves, we managed the refreshment stand at the football and basketball games. On November 19, under the direction of Mr. Kohn, we presented the play "State Fair" to a very appreciative audience. We held our class party on October 21. Our officers that year were Nancy Eippert, president; David McClain, vice-president; and Phyllis Miller, secretary-treasurer. On May 20 we honored the seniors with the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

Then all too soon we found ourselves in Senior Hall. Our officers were as follows: president, Joe McClain, vice-president, Julie Sebenoler; secretary, Linda Phillips; and treasurer, David Gibson. We and our sponsors, Mr. John Borton, Mr. Charles Hood, and Miss Jean Golling, enjoyed an informal party on January 5. During our last year at Upper High, we had many decisions to make. We ordered name cards, pictures, announcements, caps and gowns. We also chose our class flower, motto, and color. With Miss Betty Merricks directing, we presented our Senior class play, "Jane Eyre," on March 16, to a large receptive audience. On May 25 we were honored guests at the beautiful and successful Junior-Senior Prom. On May 28, the Class of 1956, consisting of seventy four members, received their diplomas. We then knew that our high school days were over, and that we must make our own way in the world.

DO YOU BELIEVE IN FAIRIES???

As my secretary and I flew through the heavens in our speedy Jet Special, we came upon "Never-Never Land." It was just as I had pictured it from my childhood.

Circling, while seeking a place to land, we were mystified by the splendor of this beautiful island. It was surrounded by a sea of crystal blue water. The trees were beautifully adorned with gaily colored spring blossoms. There was no space that we could see on which to land our ship. Suddenly we saw a clearing through the trees below us. (We were told later that it was Joe McClain's cow pasture.) At last, with skillful maneuvering we landed our craft.

As we stepped from our ship, we were greeted by the island's leaders: Mayor Paul Steiner, Judge Russell Kear, Jr., and the Chamber of Commerce, which consisted of five of its most important citizens: Ronald Raymond, Kenneth Kin, Clyde Wuethrich, and Bob and Ken May, the jewel tycoons.

The Chief of Police, Charles Sublett, was on hand to escort us to the island's most luxurious hotel, "The Wispy Willow," operated in joint partnership by Sue Preble and Shelba Walton. We were greeted at the desk by the smiling clerk, Chris Carrol. Our suites were prepared for us by the maids, Rosalie Frey, Carol Hetzel and Jean Ann Thiel. John Ward, the enthusiastic bellboy, carried our bags up to our rooms.

For lunch we feasted on Fillet of Whale and Octopus Pie, tastily prepared for us by Maxine Roberts, Anna Smith, Miriam Hoover, Rita Rhoden, and the head chef, Dan Phillips.

We were then escorted on a tour of the thriving metropolis by the singing star, Joyce Whitman, who had just finished a very successful debut at Gary Kline's "Waterland Ballroom."

We were taken next to Mermaid's Lagoon, where we watched a beautiful water ballet by Mary Smith, Joycelyn Steiner, Elizabeth Farnholtz, Dick McKelvey, Jon Grundtisch, and Bob Miller. Following the ballet, we were given a magnificent diving exhibition by Danny Patchett, the island's Olympic Diving Champ.

We then toured the business district of the city. Quite naturally, when my secretary saw Linda Phillips' Beauty Salon, she had to have her hair styled in the latest Pixie cut. After leaving there, we came to the Modern Art Gallery, operated by Julie Sebenoler and Nancy Pfeifer, aided by their able assistants, Phyllis Miller and Barbara Maxwell. Having admired their displays, we passed on down the boulevard where our attention was attracted by the bright sign over the B & K Paint and Body Shop, owned by Bill Bickham and Marion Karg. They were being aided by their mechanical minded helpers, Dave Gillen, Bob Vent, and Ed Gillen.

Moving on, we noticed the local high school and decided to stop. The principal, David Gibson, welcomed us and introduced us to the faculty: Nancy Eippert, Ruth Kiehl, Nancy Veith, and coaches Dennis Gerber and David McClain. As we strolled through the school yard, we saw Wilda Swartz, Janet Bennett, Debbie Riley, and Gladys Moses bringing their children to school.

In the distance we saw the low lines of the Atomic Research Laboratory, where Donald Stephan and Larry Newman, the celebrated scientists, were constructing a satellite which they hoped to place in the sky over "Never-Never Land" as added protection against invaders.

Next we inspected the island's defenses. We were especially interested in the Naval Department where Captain Roger (Bones) Swartz showed us their latest ship, the Jolly Roger, which was constructed under the direction of Jerry Gierhart. Ensign Melford Swihart hopes to sail this tub around the planet. While aboard, we met the ship's doctor, Tom Roszman, and his nurses, Barbara Paulin, Sally Koehler, Shirley Clark, and Clara Riedlinger.

We were shown through the town's library where the librarians, Shirley McClain and Nancy Scheidegger, presented us with the island's best-selling books, "Fairies Unrestricted," by Barbara Degler, and "The Fairy Olympics," by Roger Boyle.

From the library we went for a little relaxation to the drag strip outside of town. There we saw David Gottfried, Jim Pfeifer, Bob Little, and Richard Hudson testing their latest jet-propelled Hupmobile.

Our time was drawing short as we were taken to Pat Siegel's "Cafe-on-the-beach." Here we were served a delicious snack by Sally Walters and Rose Ann Walterhouse.

Thus our tour of the fabulous island of our dreams, "Never-Never Land," ended.

On the way to our ship we stopped at Burt Kelly's Produce Farm, where we replenished our supplies for the return trip to earth.

If you ever by chance come upon this secluded island, drop in. The "Class of '56" will be honored to have you as a guest, and will guarantee that you have a marvelous time.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The daring old maid, Letitia "Tish" Carberry, is not content to engage in all kinds of escapades without her two eccentric spinster friends. An entire southwestern town is put into an uproar by the three old ladies.

Her friends would be content to return home, but not Tish. Once she gets an idea she carries it out, whether it be fighting with the local sheriff, riding horseback, or patching up a love affair.

The whole town becomes disturbed when a bandit is at large. No one knows who he is, or what to do about him except, of course, dear Tish. It is of no consequence that she and her companions nearly get themselves killed.

No stage has ever had a character quite like Tish.

UNDERCLASS WRITE-UPS

JUNIORS

The Juniors and their officers, President David Crary, Vice-President Kenneth Graham, and Secretary-Treasurer Sue Ann Schoenberger, started the year by presenting their wonderful class play, "Tish." They also sponsored a dance after the Bellevue basketball game, and honored the Seniors by giving them a beautiful farewell prom on May 25.

Miss Merricks, Mr. Drebus, and Mrs. Riley helped make all this possible.

SOPHOMORES

Upon becoming members of Senior High, the sophomore class chose the following officers: president, Robert Swartz; vice president, William Cole; and secretary-treasurer, Shirley Brown.

The class party, which was held on April 4, was one of the biggest social affairs of the year. Perhaps the most thrilling event was the choosing of their class rings.

Through the help and guidance of their sponsors, Mr. Criner, Mr. Fleeman, and Mr. Houpt, the sophomores had a very successful year.

FRESHMEN

The freshmen began their final year in Junior High by electing the following officers: president, Floyd Culver; vice president, Lynn Hunter, and secretary-treasurer, Jane Caldwell.

The outstanding event of the year was their class party, which was held on November 18 and was enjoyed by all who attended.

Much credit goes to their class sponsors, Mr. Ebenhack, Mr. Shaffer, and Mr. Koenig, who guided and directed them in all their class projects.

ORANGE AND BLACK STAFF

Guided by Sue Ann Schoenberger, editor, and Mr. Richard Lab, advisor, the Orange and Black staff worked hard to print a better school newspaper. The largest staff in three years was available to write the feature articles and columns. Mr. Frederic Criner spent many minutes just before the deadline proofreading the material. Again this year the Orange and Black was published each Saturday in The Daily Chief-Union.

The junior and senior journalists formed a new Quill and Scroll, an honorary journalistic society.

RADIO CLUB

Miss Betty Merricks, sponsor, helped the members of the Radio Club produce a cultural type of program this year. The broadcasts were heard each Saturday morning over the Marion station. Each of the student directors produced interesting and entertaining programs. The club also made extra broadcasts on holidays and for special programs.

Row 1—Carol Hetzel, Miss Merricks, Nancy Eippert, Jerry Roszman, Julie Sebenoler, Shirley Clark. Row 2—Christine Carroll, Sally Walters, Diane Witzel, Sondra Crouse, Barbara Degler.

TRI-MASQUE

The Tr Masque Club, under the leadership of Miss Betty Merricks, consists of sophomore, junior, and senior students who are interested in dramatics.

Holding offices this year were: president, David McClain; vice president, James Gamber; secretary-treasurer, Mary Smith.

Row 1—Sharon Mutzner, Carol Hehr, Marcina Hehr, Elaine Book, Mary Smith, Miriam Hoover, Sue Ann Schoenberger, Marilla McClain. NATIONAL THESPIANS

The purpose of the National Thespians is the advancement of dramatics in the school and community. Any student who earns ten points according to the National standards is eligible to become a member.

The officers for 1955-1956 were president, Gary Kline; vice-president, Barbara Degler; secretary, Marcina Hehr; treasurer, Jerry Roszman; scribe, Barbara Myers; historian, Neva Larick; and reporter, Barbara Paulin.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council has been in existence for one decade at Upper High. Under the capable leadership of this year's officers and Mr. Robert Barclay, principal, the Council accomplished many things. Among these were the traditional selecting of entertainment for the assembly programs, aiding in school discipline problems, decorating the school for Christmas, sponsoring the Student Council Talent Show, and sponsoring a dance after a football game.

Seated: Joseph McClain, David Crary, Mr. Barclay, Robert Swartz, Julie Sebenoler, Nancy Pfeifer. Standing: Jack Stephens, Nancy Eippert, Paul Steiner, Floyd Culver, Gary Kline, Sue Ann Schoenberger, Bonnie Newell, Elizabeth Farnholtz, Nancy Scheidegger, Lynn Getz, and Ronald Wisner.

Membership in the Student Council is limited to the presidents or representatives of all organizations and classes in school.

The 1955-1956 officers were president, Gary Kline; vice-president, Nancy Eippert; secretary, Nancy Pfeifer; treasurer, Joseph McClain.

F. F. A.

The primary aim and purpose of the Future Farmers of America is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship.

The club sent two representatives, Joe McClain and Burt Kelly, to the National Livestock Convention held in Kansas City in October. The social highlight of the year was the annual F. F. A. Banquet held in December.

This year, under the leadership of Mr. John Borton, the club chose the following boys for officers: president, Dennis Gerber; vice-president, Clyde Wuethrich; secretary, Joe McClain; treasurer, Robert May; sentinel, Edward Gillen; and reporter, Kenneth May.

F. H. A.

The motto of the F. H. A. is "Toward New Horizons," and all of the girls are thinking of the future. Two of them, Shirley Constien and Nancy Scheidegger, have completed their Jr. Homemaker Degree, the first step toward becoming a State Homemaker.

The club's annual project is making Christmas presents for the men and women living in the County Home.

The officers for the school year were Nancy Scheidegger, president; Wilda Swartz, vice-president; Gladys Moses, secretary; Anna Smith, treasurer; Elaine Diebert, parliamentarian; and Dorothy Heffelfinger, historian. Mrs. Elizabeth Riley was their sponsor.

Row 1—Roger Boyle, Marilla McClain, Norita Newell, Janis Steinmetz, Jerry Roszman, Diane Witzel, Nancy Eippert, William Cole. F. T. A.

The Upper Sandusky Future Teachers of America is in its ninth year.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Hazel Caves, the officers were president, Nancy Eippert; vice-president, Jerry Roszman; secretary, Diane Witzel; and treasurer, Janis Steinmetz.

The club is open to all students interested in a teaching career. Members gain experience by being in classrooms as actual teachers, and earn their merit points by assisting teachers in their school duties.

HI-TEENS

Again this year, Hi-Teens has provided a worthwhile and entertaining program for all sophomore, junior, and senior girls.

The annual Christmas Dance, "Snow Bound," was an unusually beautiful social event of our school year. Projects to provide funds for their program consisted of selling monogrammed stationery, and Christmas corsages. The club also sponsored vocational and career talks by interesting people. One meeting featured a former Hi-Teens' president, Miss Mary Louise Blair of Eastern Air Lines.

The 1955-1956 officers were Julie Sebenoler, president; Nancy Eippert, vice-president; Ruth Kiehl, secretary, and Nancy Veith, treasurer. Miss Jean Golling was the sponsor.

SR. G. A. A.

Under the supervision of Miss Frances Holden, physical education teacher, the Senior Girls' Athletic Association had a very successful year.

King Russell Kear and Queen Mary Smith reigned over an unusual and beautiful Valentine dance. The junior and sophomore attendants, Janis Steinmetz and Czerny Eyestone, Jacie Herald and Larry Lehman, added to the festivities of the "Be Mine" theme.

The officers for 1955-1956 were Nancy Pfeifer, president; Mary Smith, vice-president; Linda Phillips, secretary; and Rose Ann Walterhouse, treasurer.

All girls in the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades are eligible to join the Jr. G. A. A. if they are active members of a physical education class. The sponsor of the Jr. G. A. A., Miss Frances Holden, and the officers, Bonnie Newell, president; Judy Linstedt, vice-president; Phyllis Ritterspach, secretary; and Yvonne Keller, treasurer, helped to provide a program of activities broad enough and attractive enough to have an appeal for every girl in Jr. High School.

HI - Y

The purpose of the Hi-Y Club is "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community a high standard of Christian character."

One of the new activities of the club was to sponsor a white Christmas project. All students were asked to donate gifts wrapped in white. These gifts were then distributed to the poor and needy of our community.

Donald Stephan and Gary Kline were selected to attend the Ohio District Officers' Convention in Columbus in December.

The 1955-1956 officers were president, Thomas Roszman, vice-president, Daniel Phillips; secretary, Robert Vent, treasurer, David Kramer; chaplain, Gene Delaplane, sergeant-at arms, James Pfeifer. The club's advisor was Mr. Donald Drebus.

After settling down from a busy football season, the band started preparing for numerous other events, such as the District and State Contests, the annual Northern Ohio League Band Festival, a Winter Concert, and the Christmas Assembly. Mr. August Yoder did fine work in preparing the band for these programs.

The officers for this year were president, Paul Steiner; vice-president, Joycelyn Steiner, secretary-treasurer, Nancy Veith; librarians, Richard Hudson and David Gibson.

This year's Junior Band worked hard to prepare for a spring concert, and to win the right to enter the District Music Contest.

The Senior Band members wish the Junior Band the best of luck, and know they will do their best to represent Upper High in Marching Band and Concert Band in the coming years.

"Band, take the field!" These were the familiar words heard at every football game to announce that it was time for the Upper Sandusky High School Marching Band to do its share in the half-time performances. Not only did the band have entertaining shows on the field, but it also showed a lot of school spirit in supporting the team.

Our new director, Mr. August Yoder, did excellent work in taking over the band, and spent many hours planning formations, writing music, and practicing.

This year's eighteen senior members will always have pleasant memories of their parts in the football games, parades and ceremonies, which helped so greatly to make their last year a happy one.

Our very capable and attractive junior majorettes for this year were Elaine Book, Marilyn Kunert, and Barbara Myers. Seniors Nancy Pfeifer and Debbie Riley, both majorettes for four years, added greatly to the performances of the band and will certainly be missed next year.

DRUM MAJOR

Jerry has been a drum major during his sophomore, junior and senior years, and has done a fine job of leading the band. With the assistance of the five majorettes, he has performed many interesting maneuvers during the half-time shows which have helped to make our band an outstanding feature.

Drum major, Jerry Roszman, will also be leaving the band this year.

SOUND EQUIPMENT

These boys are responsible for setting up the public address system whenever needed. Mr. Earl Shaffer, the sponsor of the club, has done a splendid job of instructing the boys in the use of the equipment.

VISUAL EDUCATION

To these students and to Mr. Frederick Koenig, we pay tribute for their superb job of advancing film education in the school and community.

Upper

Upper had a little ram.
It's fleece was orange and black.

And everywhere that Upper went,
The ram brought

When Upper opened its football season this year, most of the fans admitted that the Rams had a good team, but they had serious doubts about their beating the always tough Shelby and Bellevue squads.

Coach Leo Strang's team made the cynics eat the r words by defeating both Bellevue and Shelby by decisive margins. Upper went on to have one of the most fabulously successful seasons in Ram history. They went undefeated, winning all nine of their scheduled games while scoring 329 points to their opponents' 89. They were ranked ninth in the state poll—the highest rating an Upper team has ever achieved. Their success can be attributed to the spirit which they showed throughout the season, and to the excellent cooperation and unselfish team play they displayed. It will be a long time before the fighting Rams of "55" will be forgotten.

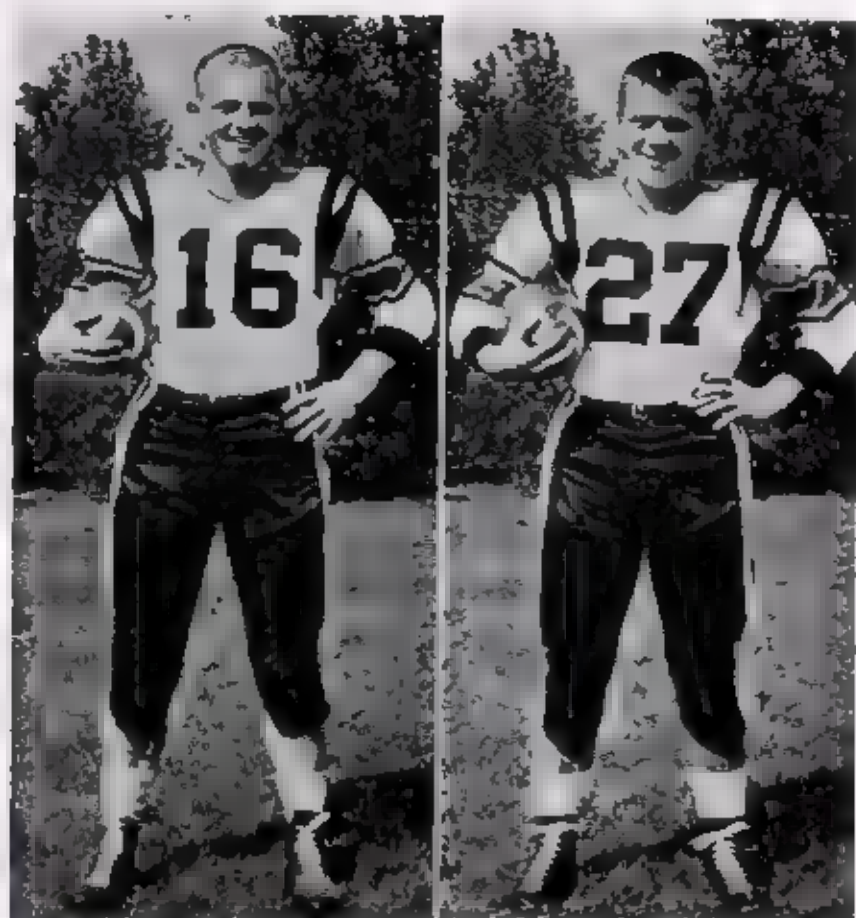

COACHES

A great deal of the credit for Upper's highly successful football season can be attributed to its excellent coaching staff, composed of coaches L. V. Ebenhack, Leo Strang, Donald Drebus, and Fenton Wolfe.

CO-CAPTAINS

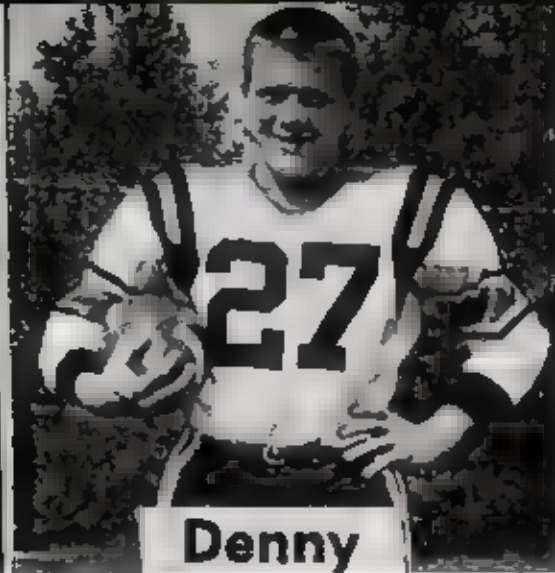

Co-Captain David McClain played first string quarterback for three years. The following honors were won by him: First Team All-League, outstanding back in the League, and All-Ohio quarterback as selected by the United Press. He finished his career by being chosen to play in the annual North-South game.

Co-Captain Dennis Gerber earned three varsity football letters during his career at Upper Sandusky High School. In the post season selection, he was chosen on the First Team All League, and made Honorary Captain of the All-League Team. He was also given state-wide recognition on the A. P. All-Ohio Team.

The team is proud of David's and Dennis' accomplishments, and is grateful for their excellent leadership.

HOMECOMING

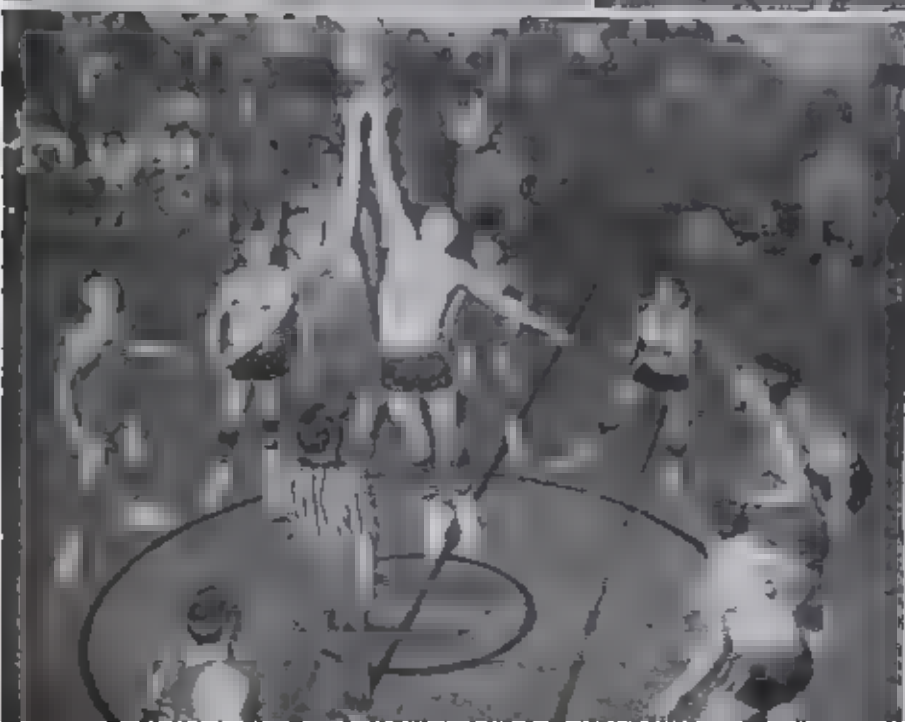

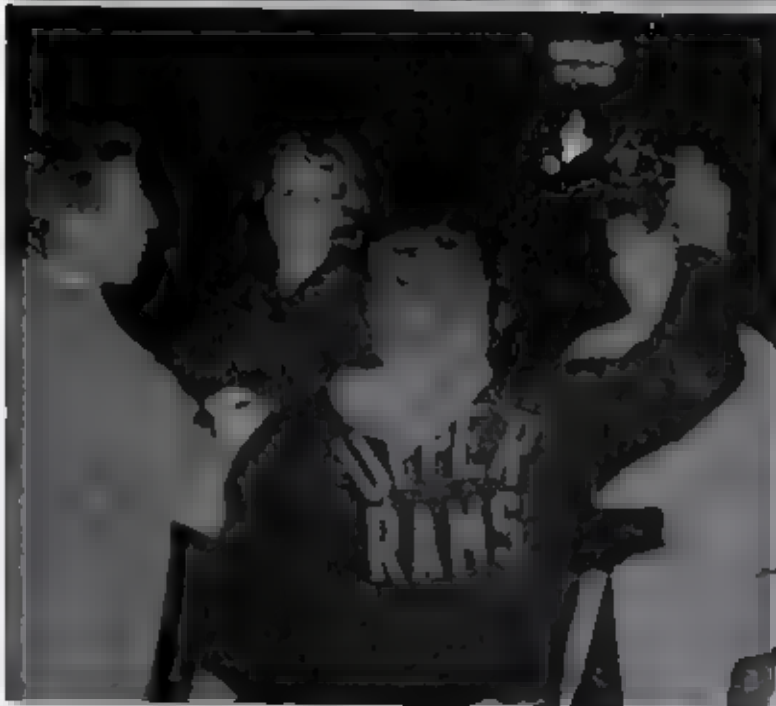

After a vigorous campaign, Phyllis Miller was elected Homecoming Queen. She reigned over the victorious homecoming game on November 4, and was crowned of honor at a special dance after the game.

Upper's homecoming festivities would not be complete without these five sparkling girls who added glamour and excitement to the evening: Mary Smith, Barbara Maxwell, Phyllis Miller, Anna Smith, and Nancy Pfeifer.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Upper Rams basketball team, guided by Coach Leo Strang, ended the season with a 4-14 record. While they were not always on the long end of the score, they played at all times in such a manner that their school could be proud of them. They must be commended for the determination and spirit they displayed, although they were almost always at a great height disadvantage. They did their best every time they took the floor, and that is all anyone could possibly ask of them.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL TEAMS

The Freshman Basketball Team, under the capable coaching of Dr. Donald Drebus, had a successful season. They won 6 and lost 4, while showing a great deal of spirit and determination. They should prove to be a big asset to the varsity and reserve teams next year.

The Seventh and Eighth Grade Basketball squad, under the supervision of Mr. Richard Lab, turned in another fine season. They won 9 and lost 1, the last game of the season being won by Tiffin. It looks as though Upper's basketball future is bright indeed.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Throughout the football and the basketball seasons, the cheerleaders were responsible for the "peppy" cheering and the good sportsmanship of Upper Sandusky fans. The voices of the three seniors, Mary Smith, Phyllis Miller, and Christine Carroll, will be greatly missed by the group.

The cheerleaders helped organize a Pep Club for the more enthusiastic high school boosters.

We congratulate these girls for a job well done.

RESERVE CHEERLEADERS

These enthusiastic girls cheered the reserve basketball team in victory and in defeat. In their role as reserve cheerleaders, they have gained experience in leading organized "yells," exemplifying sportsmanship at its best.

We wish future success to you and your teams.

TRACK

With most of last year's team back, and with Fenton Wolfe serving as coach, the Ram track team is anticipating a successful season. Throughout April and May they will compete in seven meets, including the League Meet at Tiffin. They will also participate in the Mansfield Relays, the Upper Night Relays, the District Meet at Mansfield, and the State Meet.

VARSITY U

The Varsity U, sponsored by Coach Leo Strang is an honorary organization composed of all major athletic letter winners. The highlight of the club's activities was the annual Varsity U banquet, which was held in December.

BASEBALL

The baseball team, coached by Mr. Richard Lab, is looking forward to a good season as nine lettermen are returning from last year. During the season they will play in nine league games, and will compete in the District Tournament at Mansfield.

Mr. Richard Lab
